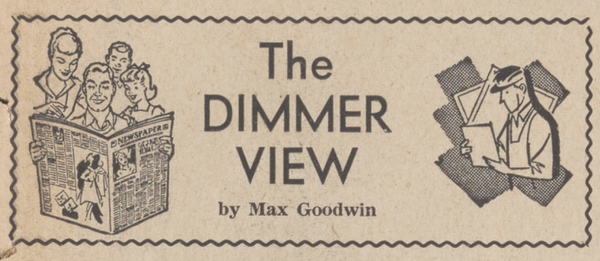
LAFCO OK's Park Plans



The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

A Congressional Look At the Postal Service

You won't get much of an argument when you complain that the Postal Service is slowing down.

The slowdown could be caused by any number of things. A changing system in which the operation has changed from government-political to government-private may be partly to blame.

Then the Postal Commission put a freeze on employment. This relieved many of the employees from some of their otherwise free time. This was enough to upset many malingerers.

There is also the threat of some new, sophisticated machinery which is supposed to convert zip code numbers into geographical locations. These haven't been fully researched and developed yet, but they remain a threat. And there are other time-saving machines that have been put into use but they seem to require more time than did the earlier, slower process.

But the ailment runs deeper than machinery that is yet to go through the costly research and development processes. R&D should have started 25 years ago. So should the handling of personnel. It doesn't take a psychiatrist to diagnose the problem as a people problem.

A postal executive secure in his position, and with slim hope for an advancement, isn't going to rock the boat by motivating those under him. Those under him, secure within rather wide guidelines, but hopeless as far as reward for service is concerned, make up the lower 9/10ths of the postal iceberg.

The truth is that in the exchange of security for reward, the spark that makes any organization go, has long since been lost. Management must be given the power to hire and fire to be effective. A businesslike operation with a smaller, more efficient corps of workers offering seeable advancement would re-introduce the spark.

There is a legion of people on the post office payroll today who can mope through their work week, accomplishing little, and who are immune to sanction for failing to perform.

These would be the first to go out — or go to work under an authority-responsible system.

But the system basically remains the same as it was when Benjamin Franklin was writing all those witty sayings. Maybe R&D should have started then since it is a people organization now just as it was then.

None of this has helped to solve the Postal Service problem but solution is possible if muscle is put in the right place.

U.S. Senator Alan Cranston is actually the person responsible for this study. It was he who released a list of complaints from disgruntled postal patrons. He threatens to ask Congress to turn the post office over to private industry if it doesn't improve—maybe even giving it to Ralph Nader.

He provided a rundown of typical complaints he is getting in larger and larger quantities as public dis-enchantment grows.

Says Sen. Cranston:

A man in Sylmar with an extended illness mailed sick-leave forms to his employer so that he could receive compensation while he was ill. The forms were lost in the mail. Against the advice of his doctor, he got out of his sick-bed and delivered a new set of forms personally.

The president of an engineering and supply company in Burbank complained that his firm lost a $25,000 contract because their mailed bid arrived one day late though it had been mailed four days ahead of deadline.

A couple in Pleasanton were charged additional interest on their mortgage payment because their check to the bank was received past the due date even though they say they had mailed it in plenty of time.

A Modesto man with a son in the Marine Corps stationed in Europe says letters to his son arrive in a reasonable length of time. But the letters his son sends to him take 5-7 weeks to arrive

A San Francisco realtor found that mail delivery to his office was so unreliable that he had to rent a post office box.

An Anaheim man left on an 18-day vacation. At Los Angeles International Airport, 25 miles from his home, he mailed a card to a neighbor asking that something be checked at his home. It took the card 15 days to travel the 25 miles.

The mail of a Los Angeles man is consistently being delivered to the wrong address. He writes, "The Postal Service is now at the point where it is no longer a service but an aggravation."

The director of a laboratory in Mill Valley writes that her business is dependent entirely on the mail service for delivery of medical specimens. But the specimens are so often delayed that the stability of her business is being threatened.

A woman in Mission Vallejo is supposed to receive her pay check every Thursday. Frequently it arrives the following Monday.

A woman in Napa sent her son at Stanford a coffee can full of cookies. When it arrived the can was crushed flat.

In San Diego, a woman found that she has to glue down stamps to keep them from falling off envelopes.

A Santa Barbara woman sent a gallon of peach jam to her daughter in Washington state. The jam was in a plastic container and wrapped in two separate boxes, both lined with newspaper. Enroute the Postal Service managed to poke a hole clear through the parcel.

A woman in Kentfield can't get the Postal Service to reply to written complaints about her mail service.

A retiree in Los Angeles frequently receives his Social Security check so late that his rent is overdue.

A couple in Arcadia sent a letter to Santa Cruz that was routed by way of Pennsylvania.

An author in North Hollywood mailed two copies of a manuscript to New York at the same time. One went third class and the other air mail. The third class manuscript arrived a day ahead of the other.

Then there was the man in Sacramento who received a notice that his mail would no longer be delivered because of an obstruction in front of his mail box. The obstruction turned out to be the frond of a fern.

An author in Sonoma lost his valuable manuscripts in the mail.

But to top it off, a postal executive in Lemon Grove was still looking forward to receiving his service club (Rotary) bulletin five days after it was mailed to him at the post office address—from a point of origin about one mile away.

Approval Seen For Auditorium

A proposed $1.4 million auditorium project to be undertaken jointly by the City of El Cajon and the Grossmont Community College District is expected to be approved by the college's board of governors Monday.

At a meeting of the governing board last week, three of the five trustees spoke in favor of the proposal as submitted by Superintendent Robert Burnham.

Under the terms of the anticipated agreement between the college district and the City of El Cajon, each will contribute $700,000 toward the construction of the facility, which will be in El Cajon's "Superblock" plan.

Earlier, the college district balked at the idea, noting that it may not be legal for the college to build on property owned by the city.

El Cajon then agreed to deed the property for the auditorium to the college district for $1.

Concerns had also been expressed that an auditorium in downtown El Cajon would inhibit its use for educational purposes, but Burnham indicated that it would not be an insurmountable problem.

Another concern would be maintenance of the auditorium, which is expected to cost between $35,000 and $45,000 per year. By operating the facility under the terms of the Civic Center Act and charging rental fees to groups using the auditorium, maintenance costs could be lowered, Burnham said.

Indicating support for the project last week were trustees Karl Tuttle and Dale Burke and board president Portia Goode. Although no opposition was expressed by trustees William Faulwetter and Paul Epler, neither seemed to favor the project.

Action is expected at the next meeting of the board, scheduled for Monday at 7:30 p.m

Two Lemon Grove Men Graduates Of Radiological Course

Two Lemon Grove men were among 14 graduates of the County's Emergency Services Training Center Radiological Meter Operators course for December.

Charles E. Lewis and Romeo L. Marcon were the local men who received certificates of graduation, according to William B. Marty, chief deputy director for Emergency Services.

Representatives of U. S. Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Federal Aviation Administration, Lindbergh Field, Santee Fire District, Kaiser Foundation Hospital, Lemon Grove Fire District, San Diego County Department of Operations and Doctor's Hospital attended the graduation.

The monthly training course includes discussion on nuclear weapon phenomenology, radioactive fallout, protection from the effects of fallout, how radiation affects living tissue and instruction in the proper use of radiation detection instruments, Marty said.

In addition to the regular field exercise the class participated in a simulated "Peacetime Incident" involving a transportation vehicle and the special containers presently used for the transportation of radioactive isotopes.

Each graduate is qualified for an assignment to one of the 300 radiological monitoring stations throughout the county, Marty said.

LG Planners List Housing Categories

The Lemon Grove Planning Association met last Thursday evening and discussed plans for a proposed six-acre park and defined categories of residential developments.

The association discussed the LAFCO hearing which was held Monday and it was suggested that members who could attend do so. Several persons from the association were on hand and the project was approved by LAFCO.

Five areas of residential housing categories were defined. They are:

1) Low residential — limited to single family detached houses.

2) Low planned residential development — areas with slightly higher density but designed specifically for PRD's. The classification would include townhouse, cluster houses, garden apartments, and detached single family dwellings but density would be limited to five units per acre.

3) Medium — provides for single family dwellings, duplexes, triplexes, row houses, and garden apartments up to eight units per acre.

4) Medium mobile home park — areas not to exceed eight units per acre which would indicate areas where mobile home parks could be located without conflict with the community plan.

5) Medium high planned residential development — provides for duplexes, triplexes, fourplexes, row housing, and garden apartments of one or two stories up to a maximum of 12 units per acre.

The next meeting of the planning association will be next Thursday afternoon at 3 p.m. in the auditorium at Golden Avenue School.

It is expected at that meeting that the committee will define other categories of buildings, including commercial and industrial. The meeting is open to the public.

Liquor Store Owner Charged With Sale on 'Suspension'

Morris Kahan, 54, whose family owns and operates Popular Liquor and Delicatessen, at 7826 Broadway in Lemon Grove, was arrested Thursday by undercover agents of the Alcoholic Beverage Control for allegedly selling alcoholic beverages while the license was under suspension.

ABC suspended the license on January 5 and posted the shop's windows with two "suspension" signs. The complaint at that time was that sales to minors were allegedly made prior to December 29, 1972.

The alleged sale and the arrest of Kahan took place at 8:15 a.m. Jan. 11 after ABC undercover officers charged that they had made the purchase of two bottles of Jim Beam bourbon from him.

Kahan lives at 4447 38th st. in San Diego. He will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court on January 23.

Kahan's brother, Charles, a Helix High school instructor, is under federal indictment in connection with the alleged transfer of 1,000 pounds of marijuana from an Arizona airport to the California border.

LAFCO OK's CV Arena

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Leonard Bloom's Sports World was welcomed into the City of Chula Vista by a unanimous vote of the Local Agency Formation Commission on Monday.

LAFCO's action gives the city the right to proceed with the annexation of 391 acres on which Bloom says he plans to build a 20,000 seat sports arena and a shopping center.

Bloom is the owner of the San Diego Conquistadors, an ABA basketball team.

The location is on the east side of the proposed route of Interstate 805, south of Bonita road and north of Telegraph Canyon road.

Marijuana Possession Charged

Two Lemon Grove men and a juvenile were charged with possession of marijuana after being arrested on Citrus st.

Robert T. O'Connor, 18; David A. Green, 20, and a 15-year old juvenile were charged by Sheriff's deputies after answering an 11 p.m. complaint regarding a disturbance thought to have been caused by drunks.

Officers took into custody the three youths when they noted a strong odor of burning marijuana emanating from the auto occupied by the youths.

O'Connor had a small amount of marijuana in a plastic bag. Several partially burned marijuana cigarettes were found in the car, officers reported.

After being transported to the Lemon Grove substation for booking, a plastic bag containing marijuana was found in the patrol car where the suspects were sitting.

Merger Eyed For Park, Landscaping

A proposed 6-acre park at Mt. Vernon and Massachusetts in Lemon Grove received the support of the Local Agency Formation Commission Monday when the Commission approved a county service area.

Next step for the park plans will be at the County Board of Supervisors level, where the board will determine the outcome of the proposal.

The board will consider the proposal, hear any opposition which may arise and presumably schedule an election, depending on support or opposition the plans encounter.

At the LAFCO hearing Monday morning, several local people were on hand to speak about proposal, including Lucy Coles, of the Lemon Grove Planning Association and Robert Russell, of the community bettermen committee.

Russell was on hand to request that the commission add a plan for Broadway improvement landscaping to the park proposal.

Plans for a county service area to provide maintenance funds for the proposed landscaping which will be added to proposed improvements on Broadway, have been undertaken by the community betterment committee.

Because the boundaries for the landscape service area are the same as those for the park plan, it has been suggested that the two proposals be merged, saving time, money, and red tape.

LAFCO, however, declined to add the landscape plans, probably because it would have meant a delay in approving the park plans.

Frank Mulligan, of the county engineering department, indicated that it is still possible to merge the plans at a later time without delaying either project.

LAFCO seemed to favor the idea, but indicated the paperwork on the landscaping plans had not yet been completed and that waiting for it would have meant a delay for the park plans.

Jim Dorman, chairman of the Lemon Grove Planning Association, agreed that it would be a good idea to merge the plans, because, he said, it would cost less and speed up the process for the landscape project.

The landscaping project will include planting medians which are to be constructed on Broadway, as well as further landscaping of the railroad right of way and improvements on Imperial ave.

The actual work on the road is expected to begin in mid July, if everything stays on schedule, according to Frank Mulligan, of the engineering department.

It is expected that a merged service area for the landscaping and park projects would not be formed until next fall, so the landscaping project would probably not begin until next winter, Mulligan said.

It is hoped, he said, that the landscaping would be finished at about this time next year.

It had earlier been hoped that the landscaping project could be accomplished at the same time that roadwork was done, but additional red tape caused by SB-90 will apparently slow down the process.

SB-90, the controversial finance measure passed by the State Legislature in December, provided for a tax shift which included less property tax, an increase in sales tax, and additional red tape in the formation of service areas.

It has not been determined exactly what effect the measure will put on the local projects, but a delay of at least three months is expected, thus causing the Broadway improvements and landscaping to be completed at different times.

Meanwhile, approval of the park plans by LAFCO was encouraging to Jim Dorman, who indicated that the approval showed progress and improvement for the community.

Dorman also said that he hopes similar progress can be made on the landscaping project.

Lost Car Keys Leads To Burglary Arrest

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A Spring Valley man, Armando Dominguez Gomez, 27, of 735 Braun st., will spend 9 months in the honor camp as a condition of three years' probation.

He was arrested Nov. 27 after the victim of a burglarized San Diego apartment recognized the property in Gomez' truck. The truck was still at the site of the burglary because Gomez lost his keys during the burglary.

In addition to the penalty, Gomez must submit to tests for drug use as ordered.

C. A. Paul Reappointed To COPES

Grossmont College President, Erv F. Metzgar, Monday announced the reappointment of C. Allen Paul, dean of technical vocational education at Grossmont College, to a statewide project established to help California Community Colleges cope with their responsibility to prepare students for employment.

The project, now in its second year of development and application of a systematic method for evaluating colleges' occupational education programs, is titled COPES (Community College Occupational Programs Evaluation System). COPES represents a cooperative effort between colleges and the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges in Sacramento.

Dean Paul was selected to serve for a second time as a COPES team member for program evaluations. He is among the more than 50 California community college superintendents, presidents, deans of instruction and occupational education and teachers, as well as knowledgeable persons from business and industry nominated by the local colleges and chosen by a statewide committee and the Chancellor's Office.

By the end of the 1972-73 year, nearly 35 community colleges — large, medium and small; urban, suburban and rural — will have taken advantage of the COPES service, created to improve the quality and availability of occupational education in California.

COPES is managed by the Foothill Community College District, Los Altos Hills. Project coordination has been assigned to the research and consulting firm of George Ebey Associates, Palo Alto. The Chancellor's Office sponsorship role is supervised by Dr. Bill Morris, consultant in evaluation for the Division of Occupational Education.

Testimonial Dinner Held For Schroeder

Nearly 700 guests assembled last Wednesday evening at the Town & Country convention center to attend a testimonial dinner honoring Dr. Charles Schroeder, retired director of the San Diego Zoo.

Learn Spanish The Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Converting the English word "point" into Spanish offers an opportunity to learn of the many ways we may apply different meanings for one word. "Punto" means "point" as might be used in "Es su punto de vista." (It is your point of view.) or "Es un punto interesante." (It is an interesting point.).

"Indicar" is the way to say "point out." This may be used in expressions like "Ella puede indicar toda las cosas de interes." (She can point out everything of interest.) and "El va a indicar cada cosa." (He is going to point out each thing.).

"Apuntar" is converted into the English idea "to point." This permits us to say expressions like "Favor de no apuntar su dedo." (Please do not point your finger.) and "No vamos a apuntar." (We are not going to point.).

"Puntos" is the plural form for "points." This may be used in keeping scores as in "Nuestro equipo tiene quince teiene quince puntos." (Our team has fifteen points.) and "Necesitamos vienticinco puntos para ganar." (We need twenty-five points to win.). "Tantos" is also used for "points" as in "El ha hecho diez tantos." (He has made ten points.).

Strangely enough, we can say either "la punta" or "el punto" but not interchangeably. "La punta" suggests "the point" as in the identification of sharp points or objects. "El punto" refers to "the point" as in locations. Thus we say "La punta del lapiz es aguda." (The point of the pencil is sharp.) and "El punto en este camino es bonito." (The point on this road is pretty.).

Try saying the following practice phrases that demonstrate some of the uses of "point." Dial 276-2762 for hearing an automatic recording of them.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Es un punto de vista." (ehs oon POON-toh deh VEES-tah) for "It is a point of view."

Say "Favor de indicarlo." (fah-VOHR deh een-dee-KAHR-loh) for "Please point it out."

Say "Ellos tienen diez puntos." (EH-yohs tee-EH-nehn dee-EHS POON-tohs) for "They have ten points."

Say "La punta es aguda." (lah POONtah ehs ah-GOO-thah) for "The point is sharp."

Say "Paramos en este punto." (pah-RAH-mohs ehn EHS-teh POON-toh) for "We stopped in this point."

Say "Ganamos por un tanto." (gah-NAH-mohs pohr oon TAHN-toh) for "We won by one point."

Fire Damages S.V. Trailer

A fire in a trailer which was apparently caused by overheated wiring caused approximately $1,000 damage to the structure and another $800 damage to its contents in Spring Valley last week.

According to reports from the Spring Valley Fire Department, the fire broke out at about 6 p.m. last Thursday, when the trailer was parked at the rear of 9172 Birch st.

The trailer, a 35-foot model, was owned by Merlon Alcorn, of the Birch st. address.

NAVY EMPLOYEES COMMENDED — Civil Service employees with the Naval Station-based San Diego Navy Public Works Center, left to right, Electrical Foreman Bruno Leonisio of 7602 Circle dr., Lemon Grove; Electrician D. C. Buckles of Chula Vista; and Electrician K. C. Nicholl of Santee with their Navy electrical line truck. The men were commended for recent night emergency electrical repair aboard the Miramar Naval Air Station.

Their services were requested when high wind, whipping newly installed 12,000 volt power lines, was causing short circuit between two phases of the high voltage power cable.

Meanwhile, San Diego Gas and Electric Company had cut off power to the air station and would agree to restore service until the problem was corrected.

It was pitch-black night outside and solving the problem required climbing five power poles and re-installing the power lines. This work created more space between the individual 12,000 volt cable solving the problem.

"There's safer ways of earning a living. Working on poles with hooks was bone weary labor in lifting the kind of weight involved with these high voltage cables. Care is required in working during darkness by light from the line truck spotlight," Leonesio commented.

Volunteer Scout leaders, over 2,500 strong, will fill the Community Concourse's Golden Room to full capacity Saturday evening when the San Diego County Council, Boy Scouts of America, holds its 31st Annual Awards Dinner and 55th Annual Council Meeting.

Highlight of the evening's program, commencing after Southern California's largest Pot Luck dinner scheduled for 6 p.m., will be the presentation of 16 Silver Beaver awards and 5 Silver Fawn awards to outstanding San Diegans who have rendered distinquished service to boys. The Silver Beaver is for male Scouters and the Silver Fawn for ladies. The award is a national award and is the highest that can be bestowed by a Local Council.

Council President Claude C. Blakemore, Trustee for U. S. Investors, will chair the 55th annual meeting and install the elected council officers for 1973.

Recipients for the coveted awards are not known until they are announced during the evening program. Presentors will be leaders in the field of education, including Dr. Arthor Hughes, President of USD; Dr. Thomas Goodman, Superintendent of San Diego City Schools; and George W. Dunn, President of the San Diego County Board of Education.

Parliamentary Procedures, Sci-Fi Among Spring Classes

Among new courses at Grossmont College planned for the spring semester are a Fantasy and Science Fiction class and a Principles of Parliamentary Procedures course.

Application for the spring semester must be made by 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Charles Vittor, an English teacher at the college, will teach the fantasy and science fiction course, which will include topics from The Illiad to Count Dracula to A Clockwork Orange.

"Escapist literature is no longer considered sub-literature," according to Vittor, "the ecological themes of many science fiction books make them more appealing to the young people."

The class will be loose in structure, according to the instructor, and much of class time will be spent in presentations of research undertaken by students.

The 3-unit class will be offered Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

The parliamentary class, which will be taught by Jack McAuley, is a two-unit course meeting Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

The class sessions, instead of being of the lecture variety, will be run like organization meetings. Each member of the class will have an opportunity to play the roles of different officers.

Many of the telephones currently in use in France were designed and installed before World War II.

INSTITUTIONAL SALES — William P. Thomas has been appointed director of institutional sales for Sea World, Inc. by Jan E. Schultz, vice president and director of marketing for the corporation.
In his newly created position, Thomsa will supervise relationships with firms that sponsor exhibits, shows, rides and programs in the San Diego, Ohio and Florida marine parks.

Area Banks Offer Registration Service

Some area banks will provide counter space for routine vehicle registration renewals through the February 2 deadline.

"DMV windows" will be open at the banks during regular banking hours through close of business February 2, the legal deadline for registering without penalty, says DMV Director Robert Cozens.

"Although we recommend re-registering by mail, we recognize that many people prefer handling their renewals in person," Cozens says. "We are trying to make renewal as convenient as possible for everybody, and appreciate the traditional annual courtesy by the banks."

A Department of Motor Vehicles employee at the temporary bank window will accept fees, validate 1973 registration renewal cards, and issue 1973 stickers for license plates — but only for routine transactions which don't require special computations.

Clerks at bank windows are not equipped to make any changes on the punched cards other than an address change. Anyone needing special computations or adjustments, or wanting to change his registration, should call at a regular DMV office, or at an automobile club office where he holds membership.

Boat registrations will not be handled at bank windows.

The nearest banks offering the service are located in National City and El Cajon. The Bank of America at 235 East Eighth st., National City, has a DMV window during regular hours, as does the El Cajon BofA branches at 414 North Magnolia and 2295 Fletcher Parkway. A third El Cajon bank with the service is the Security Pacific National Bank at 850 North Second st.

An extra dollar assessed on all vehicles this year is destined for an "Abandoned Vehicle Trust Fund" to be used to dispose of old unclaimed auto hulks statewide. The dollar is included in the fee appearing on the punched cards.

Council Honors Local Teachers

Educators from San Diego County schools were honored Wednesday by the Greater San Diego Industry-Education Council for "distinguished service as educational leaders of our youth."

Winners of the council's annual awards were announced during a "Salute to Education" meeting in the Hanalei Hotel in Mission Valley.

The council also installed Layton G. Pratt, Pacific Telephone executive, as president, succeeding William Steinberg, director of vocational education for San Diego Community Colleges.

Dr. Brage Golding, president of San Diego State University, spoke on "A New Look At Education."

HONORED — Spring Valley agent Billy E. Ford, has been honored by New York Life Insurance Company for the largest first year sales volume in the history of the South Pacific Region, which currently includes 740 agents in Southern California and Hawaii.

Ford insured more than 190 persons for nearly 2.8 million in his first year according to General Manager Robert F. Brown, CLU, of the company's Balboa General Office in Mission Valley.

Ford resides at 525 Hotz st., Spring Valley, with his wife, Sandy, and 3 children.

Historians Make Plans For Dinner

The San Diego Historical Society has announced plans for its annual meeting January 29 in the Town and Country Room of the Town and Country Hotel. The yearly Historical Society gathering will be preceded by no-host cocktails and entertainment at 6 p.m. and dinner at 7 p.m.

The keynote address of the evening will be delivered by the Honorable Robert H. Finch, former counselor to President Richard Nixon. His topic will be "The American Revolution Bicentennial Celebration — 1976." Honorable Pete Wilson, Mayor of San Diego, will introduce Finch.

Following the address, San Diego Historical Society President Martin C. Dickinson will submit a report recapping the activities of the Socity and its various committees in 1972. He will recognize the contributions of hard-working Society members and will present them with Awards of Merit.

The meeting will conclude with the announcement of the new officers on the Historical Society's Board of Directors.

Two Plays On Tap At Monte Vista

The Monte Vista drama department, under the direction of Ron Ray, will present two one act plays "Lemonade" and "Now That April's Here" January 25, 26, and 27 in Room 1003. Curtain is at 7 p.m. on Thursday and at 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

Both one acts will be directed by seniors Jeff Muhleman and Bruce Haustein, former winners of the best director award during the past two years.

"Now That April's Here" is a comedy that captures the charm of youth. Justine Harris, played by Carolyn Childres, at 16 is having her first romance. Craig Porter, played by Wayne Pierce, at 17 is the one she met at the senior prom. Her romance is threatened by measles.

The play has wit, interesting characterization, and entertaining dialogue. Other cast members include: Buck Kern as Dr. Harris, Jeannie Shackelford as Mrs. Harris, Liz Moreno as Florence, and Geri Duff as Bonnie.

"Lemonade" is more serious of the two and deals with two women setting up a lemonade stand. Characterization is most important. Shelly Patterson as Edith and Darlene Shefield as Mabel provide an interesting contrast. Jeff Muhleman directs.

The plays allow Muhlman and Haustein an opportunity to put to practical use Ray's lessons on set design, lighting, costumes, and make up. Students are responsible for all aspects of the production.

Tickets are on sale at the door. Prices are $1.50 for adults, $1 for students, and 50 cents for children.

Kiwanis, Rotary Lead Youth Hoop League

The Spring Valley Recreation District's youth basketball league began action last week in divisions for youngsters in elementary, junior high, and high schools.

The "A" league, for older boys, opened with the Kiwanis and Rotary leading the pack each with a 2-0 record. Right behind was Costal Rigging with a 1-0 mark.

The Kiwanis opened the season with a 42-30 decision over the Trotters and Chuck Barker and John Young each hit double figures for the winners.

Rotary countered with a 69-51 blasting of SV Recreation as Neal Luscomb hit 18 points for the victors.

Kiwanis whipped Recreation, 55-42, while Rotary knocked off the Lions, 64-58.

Coastal Rigging won its only game, a 48-38 decision over the Trotters.

In the "B" league, it was Roadrunners, Celtics and Hawks all winning a pair of games to tie for the top spot.

The Roadrunners knocked off the Lakers, 49-16 and the Knicks, 42-40, while the Celtics beat the Bucks, 24-20 and the Lakers, 24-14, and the Hawks topped the Knicks, 46-39, and the Bucks, 52-25.

Although all three teams are knotted for the lead, the Hawks have played best against the roughest competition.

In the "C" league, the Conquistadors and Bruins each won a pair of games to tie for the top spot.

The Cues topped the Warriors, 29-10 and stomped the Pistons, 25-4, while the Bruins nailed the Gremlins, 36-15, and whipped the Warriors, 25-6.

Individual stars of the week included Neal Luscomb, who tossed in 18 points in each of his team's two games and Bob Schneider, who tallied 18 for his team in a victory.

"B" league stars were Steve Smith with 25 tallies and Bill Tellous with 23, both scored in the same game, which was won by Smith's team, the Roadrunners.

"C" league standouts were Allen Cheatham with 16 points in a losing cause and Daryl Keogh with 15 points in a victory.

Frazier-Foreman Fight Has Good Backup Card

Even if there is an early finish to the world heavyweight title fight between champion Joe Frazier and challenger George Foreman, closed circuit viewers will be able to count on a full card of attractive preliminary bouts.

The title fight will be held Monday night in Kingston, Jamaica, and shown locally exclusively on closed circuit color television at the San Diego Sports Arena starting at 5:30 p.m.

The supporting fight card includes a British Commonwealth lightweight title fight for 15-rounds between the title holder, Percy Hayles, and the number seven lightweight in the world, Al Ford, of Edmonton, Canada.

Hayles won the British Empire lightweight title in 1968 by defeating Love Allotey. Hayles has successfully defended his title against Jeff White and Ford.

Some of the more prominent fighters defeated by Hayles include Paul Armstead, former champion Joe Brown, Canadian featherweight champ Dave Hilton and Kid Bassey.

Ford is the lightweight champion of Canada and rated number seven in the world by the World Boxing Association.

Another attractive fight announced has Bunny Grant taking on Mario Saurenan in a 10-round welterweight contest.

Grant is the welterweight champion of Jamaica and also held the Jamaican lightweight title at one time.

Saurenan is from Philadelphia and will rate as the underdog in the fight off his record.

A third fight announced from Jamaica matches Roy Lee against Willie "The Worm" Monroe in a middleweight contest.

Lee holds the middleweight championship of Jamaica while Monroe fights out of Philadelphia. Monroe was undefeated from 1969 through 1971, winning 19 fights . . . 17 by knockouts.

The duration of the title fight between Frazier and Foreman will determine how many of the preliminary fights will be shown on closed circuit television.

Tickets for the local showing of the January 22 title fight card are now on sale and are priced at $10 and $8 with the usual ticket outlets and the Sports Arena handling advance sales.

Hawks Beat Atlas United

The third place Hawks upset previously undefeated and untied Atlas United last week in Division III action of the Suburban Soccer League, although the loss had no affect on United's first place position in the standings.

The Hawks tallied a single goal — one of only three scored against Atlas this season, then held the league leaders scoreless for the victory. The Hawks continued in third place, four points behind the second place Lions, who inched within two points of first place with a victory over the Rangers, 9-0.

In other action, the fourth place Roadrunners closed in on the leaders with a 6-0 victory over the last place Royals, while the fifth place Continentals drew with the Razorbacks, 1-1.

In a make-up game, the Roadrunners topped the Hawks, 4-0, to move into fourth place ahead of the Continentals.

Division IV action saw the league leading Rascals claim their ninth win in ten games while the second place Cues were dropped into third place by the Rippers, 3-2. The victory moved the Rippers into second place, three points behind first place.

In other games, the Chargers topped the Marauders, 5-2 to keep a solid hold on fifth place, the Pros knocked off the Playboys, 3-1 to keep pace in fourth place, and the last place Monarchs dropped the Braves, 3-0. The loss for the Braves dropped them into the cellar, one point behind the Monarchs.

Division II, led by the undefeated Kings with a 7-0-0 mark, also featured action last week, with Azteca, Sparta, and the Kings all claiming victory, while the Kingsmen and Rebels battled to a tie.

Saturday's action will see Atlas United against the Celtics at 11:30 a.m. at Sunset Park, the Rascals against the Cues at 10:30 a.m. at Sunset, and the Kings against Torino at 10 a.m. on the San Diego State soccer field.

Other games will be played on those fields as well as Robb Field and Monte Vista High School.

The Toreros entertain Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in their next local appearance at the USD gym, tomorrow night, at 8 p.m.

Prior to the Cal Poly game, USD had a Tuesday contest at Cal Seate Bakersfield. Following Cal Poly, the Toreros journey to Costa Mesa, Saturday, for a repeat tussle with Southern California College.

Washington, 6-4 junior, has directed his mates to a 10-3 won-loss mark including a win streak which has now reached seven games. He is second in scoring to forward Robert "Pinky" Smith with 229 points and a 17-6 average, his 83 rebounds include many key grabs and he is the overwhelming assist leader with 59.

Paul Harney, 1972 AWSDO Champion

Harney to Defend Title In Andy Williams Open

Paul Harney, the seasoned Sutton, Mass. teaching pro whose occasional forays on the tour have often met with startling success, will be back to defend his title in the sixth annual Andy Williams San Diego Open golf tournament Feb. 15-8, at Torrey Pines.

It was on one of the 42-year-old veteran's vacations from teaching last January when he came from four strokes behind half way through the final round and defeated Hale Irwin by a stroke with a 275 total.

The win helped Harney toward exemption status this year, based on a 48th place in money winnings for 1972 with $51,507. It also made him the second all-time AWSDO money winner behind Jack Nicklaus with $46,103.50.

He has won six tour events and compiled lifetime earnings of over $346,000, though now playing only some eight to 10 tournaments a year.

Harney has been particularly sharp on the West Coast sector of the tour, having won the Los Angeles Open back-to-back in 1964-65 and having placed third in the AWSDO in 1971.

Accounting somewhat for the homing instinct that takes him off the tour and back to Massachusetts each year is the fact that he and wife, Patricia, are the parents of six children.

Harney will also compete in the Celebrity Pro-Am of the Andy Williams classic on Feb. 13 and 14.

Gulls Take Rest While Sick Heal

The Gulls will be idle until Wednesday, January 24 — a break that should give all the sick and injured a chance to heal. The fray will be renewed in Phoenix.

Eyes are focused on Centerman Mike Bloom, who is still nursing a sore shoulder he dislocated in Denver on December 29.

Bud DeBrody and George Swarbrick are bothered by sore ankles.

Coach Jack Evans hopes to have all of them back in top form when the team returns home to play the Denver Spurs Thursday, January 25. This game will be at 7:30.

The Gulls are now 13-3-3 on home ice. In that first 19 games at home the Gulls have outscored the opposition 74-34.

On the road the Gulls have now won three out of their last five giving them a 4-13-3 mark. With 40 games in the books, the Gulls will be playing only two more games this month. Then things get moving again with 24 games in February (12 home-12 away) and 15 games in March (7-8). Then three games during the first week in April will close out the schedule.

Sign-Ups Scheduled

Registration times and dates have been scheduled by the Spring Valley and Lemon Grove Little Leagues, open to all youngsters in the area beween 8 and 12 years of age, and to those interested in Senior Division, from 13 to 16 years of age.

Spring Valley has scheduled registration periods for 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. January 27 and February 3 at the league field on Sweetwater lane.

Lemon Grove will hold registrations at the major league field at Monterey Heights School beginning at 9 a.m. January 27, February 3, and February 10.

La Mesa Basketball Play Opens

Jim's U-Rent, American Legion Post 282, and La Mesa Optimists were the top teams in the "A" league of the La Mesa Recreation District's youth basketball program as play opened last week.

Jim's topped the "A" league's Division I with a 2-0 mark, earned by beating King's Engraving, 41-27, and La Mesa Rotary, 59-53. Post 282 and Optimists were tied for the Division II lead, also with 2-0 marks.

Post 282 knocked off La Mesa Lumber, 66-30 and trumped Scotty's Shell, 65-38, while Optimists beat Scotty's 51-50 and La Mesa Lions, 48-43.

In the "B" league, it was La Mesa Exchange and the Warriors knotted for the lead with identical 2-0 records.

Exchange belted Rotary, 37-22 and ripped the Hawks, 44-25 while the Warriors blitzed La Mesa Fire, 73-27 and overwhelmed the Lakers, 59-12.

The Azteecs and Bruins each won a pair of games to tie for the top spot in the "C" league.

The Aztecs knocked off the Bobcats, 33-21 and beat the Comets, 30-12, while the Bruins did away with the Hawks, 21-16, and outgunned the Go Getters, 34-11.

Matador Hoopsters Claim 60-52 Win Over Monarchy

A tremendous third quarter effort by Mt. Miguel High School's basketball team resulted in a victory for the Matadors which re-establishes the team as a good shot for a berth in the CIF playoffs.

The Matadors, down by a single point at halftime while battling Monte Vista Friday night, fell to three points behind the Monarchy when, with about 6½ minutes to play in the period, Jess Jenner started hitting and the Matador defense tightened up.

When the smoke cleared, Mt. Miguel led by 11 points and Monte Vista had not scored a single point in over five minutes.

The Matadors continued the scoring barage into the fourth quarter and held an 18-point lead late in the contest before the Monarchs scored ten straight points to make the score respectable.

The results of the game knocked Monte Vista from the ranks of the unbeaten and scrambled the league standings. Monte Vista, Mt. Miguel, Grossmont, and Santana all completed Friday's action with 2-1 marks, good for a four-way tie for second place.

Both Spring Valley schools looked impressive in games last Tuesday night.

Monte Vista, still suffering from the flu bug which invaded the team a couple of weeks ago, fell behind to the eager El Capitan Vaqueros in the first half of the game Tuesday, but battled back during the final periods to tie it up at the buzzer, 46-46.

In the overtime period, Monte Vista's hero was Freddie Factuar as he led the team to seven straight points in the extra period. The Monarchs then played slow down and defense during the remaining seconds to can the victory, 53-48.

Mt. Miguel looked equally impressive in a game against the Granite Hills Eagles Tuesday. The Eagles, after losing their opening game, were ready for the Matadors, also victims in the league opener.

But it was Mt. Miguel in the foul-studded contest that jumped away in the first quarter. The Eagles battled back to lead by two points at halftime, but Mt. Miguel tied it up again in the third quarter before blowing the game wide open in the final period.

Granite Hills used excellent defensive tactics with their guards pressing, but the Matadors were able to get the ball inside, where either Steve Soloman or Jess Jenner could get the bucket or draw fouls

Mt. Miguel's two-game winning streak was expected to be broken Tuesday when the Matadors took on Helix High School, undefeated favorite for the league crown.

Monte Vista had things a bit easier against the winless El Cajon Braves. Tomorrow night's action will see Monte Vista hosting Helix and Mt. Miguel at Santana. Both games will begin at 8 p.m.

Burgener is 'Whip'

The Republican Members of Congress from California have selected freshman Congressman Clair W. Burgener as the delegation Whip. The selection was agreed upon in a pre-session organizational meeting with the formal appointment expected in the early days of the session.

Burgener took office as one of 69 new members of the House of Representatives when the 93rd Congress convened on January 3.

The Whip assists the floor leaders in vote counts prior to actual floor action on bills of importance and is involved in alerting members when the vote is to be taken.

ANNUAL VISIT—Meadowlark Lemon, famed player-coach of the Harlem Globetrotters, will lead his group of clowning basketballers into the San Diego Sports Arena next Friday night for a benefit game which will raise funds for a local scholarship fund. The San Diego Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, Professional Journalistic Society, sponsors the annual games for its scholarship fund. Providing the opposition will be the Boston Shamrocks. Over 46 seasons, the 'Trotters have played in 89 countries and have compiled a record of 10,730 wins against only 323 losses — a winning percentage of .971.

Globetrotters Visit to Benefit Newsmen's Fund

The super clowns of the basketball world, the Harlem Globetrotters, will make their annual visit to San Diego's Sports Arena Friday night, Jan. 26 at 8 p.m.

Once again providing opposition for the magicians will be the Boston Shamrocks, owned and coached by Red Klotz. The San Diego Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, Professional Journalistic Society, sponsors the game for its scholarship fund.

"We're funnier than ever this season," says player-coach Meadowlark Lemon, "because Curly Neal is back in form and going at full speed." Neal didn't play here last year because of illness.

The Trotters, in their 47th season, have been playing to turnaway crowds in many towns in the new season. Starting this season, the Trotters had attracted 71 million fans in 46 years around the globe.

Meadowlark, the No. 1 comedian of the squad, will also bring Nate Branch, Joe Cunningham, Doug Himes, Bobby Hunter, Jackie Jackson, Bobby Joe Mason, Walter Robertson and Frank Stephens here with him.

A spectacular halftime show, featuring jugglers, cyclists, table tennis players and acrobatic dancers, also will be presented.

It's doubtful any sports figures travel more in a season than the Trotters. It's estimated some members of the team — those who go overseas, too — travel between 80,000 and 100,00 miles and visit some 200 cities. Planes are used for some of the travel but most of the time the team goes from city to city on a luxurious bus.

Last season the Trotters added games in Tahiti and New Caledonia, bringing to 89 the number of countries they have played in during their 46-year history.

Entering the 1973 season, the Trotters had played 11,053 games and had an amazing record of 10,730-323.

Tickets can be purchased at the Sports Arena and at arena ticket agencies for $4.25, $5.25 and $6.25, with parking included this year.

Monarchs Overwhelm Mt. Miguel Matmen

Mt. Miguel's momentum and enthusiasm was drained like air out of a flattened tire Friday night as the school's wrestling team came up against favored Monte Vista.

The Matadors, fielding an injury-ridden team of young and inexperienced athletes, were ready for an all-out battle with the Monarchs, the overwhelming favorites for the league title.

But the bubble was bust after the first bout when highly regarded John Siscon was pinned by Monte Vista's Rusty Lockwood — a wrestler Siscon had beaten on two previous occasions this season.

From there, Mt. Miguel went steadily downhill. Two more decisions and a pin in the next three match-ups left the Matadors on the short end of an 18-0 score going into the fifth bout where Miguel's Miguel Cesena was favored over Dave Broadwolf.

With Monte Vista sensing victory, Broadwolf came up with a super effort and drew with Cesena before the Monarchs put together five straight decisions and a pair of pins entering the final bout.

In that one, it was Dan Allen trying to gain Mt. Miguel's first victory and Chris Malmgren battling for Monte Vista. Allen mercilessly tossed Malmgren about on the mats, but was unable to pin the stubborn Monarch. Allen won a four point decision, making the score 52-6.

The victory all but gave Monte Vista the league title with only one challenge left for the Monarchs, when they meet El Cajon Valley in the league season's final encounter.

For Mt. Miguel, the remainder of the season offers nothing more than a battle with El Cajon for second place and preparation for the post season tournaments.

Mt. Miguel faces Santana tomorrow night while Monte Vista takes on Helix. Next week, Mt. Miguel and El Cajon will battle it out.

SOCCER SCENE — Mt. Miguel High School's soccer team defeated Helix last week by a 2-0 score to move to within two points of first place in the Grossmont League. In other action, Monte Vista was upended by a 3-1 count by Granite Hills, and Grossmont beat El Cajon, 2-1. Matches are played each Tuesday and Friday. (Steve Wolfe photo)

Griffs Battle Back To Grab Second Place

Grossmont College, knocked from the ranks of the unbeaten, recovered with a 74-63 victory over Citrus College last week to nose back into second place.

The Griffins were knotted with Southwestern College for the top spot but the Apaches knocked off the local squad in the Grossmont gym Tuesday, 65-54.

The local quintet looked good most of the game and a rally near the end of the encounter brought the Griffs to within a single point, 42-41, but the Grossmont defense fell apart shortly thereafter and the Apaches put the game away.

Against Citrus, it was a different story as the Grossmont cagers came on strong from the beginning, twice mounting big leads, but never quite able to put the Owls away.

Leading by just five points with four minutes to go, Grossmont came on strong in the waning moments and the Citrus team had to resort to fouls to try to stop the hustling Griffs.

The tactics failed, however, as Grossmont netted 10 of 11 free throws to ice the victory. John Slater was the big gun for Grossmont with 23 points, including nine of ten free throws.

Golf Tourneys To Aid March Of Dimes Drive

San Diego County — the golf capital of the world — will drop in a few putts for the March of Dimes.

Several of the county's golf courses have agreed to schedule March of Dimes golf tournaments, January 20 and 27, as gestures in helping the 1973 fund drive, reports Thomas V. Prendergast, golf chairman.

Prendergast said that these have been annual affairs in the fund-raising campaign each January and added that it should have even more importance since Arnold Palmer is the national campaign chairman. Sheriff John F. Duffy is the San Diego-Imperial Counties chairman.

Individual trophies will be awarded to the low net scores for men and women at each club participating. Entry fee is $1.

"Additional fun activity can be provided on selected par 3 holes on the front and back nines," Prendergast added.

"For example, if a ball lands in a trap, a player will be asked to forfeit 10 cents. If the ball misses the green, the penalty is 5 cents but a shot to the green frees the golfer of any charge."

Platter Party Planned

A "Valentne's Platter Party" has been scheduled for February 2 at the Lemon Grove Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, 2885 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, to benefit the Lemon Grove Youth Center.

Also included will be a cocktail hour from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and a buffet dinner served at 10:30 p.m. Donations are $1.50 per person, and door prizes are planned.

To qualify, each girl must first have successfully competed at a local school playground or park and recreation center.

Three-hundred participants will try to out-hop one another in one of two divisions: "A" Division, for third and fourth graders; and "B" Division, for fifth and sixth graders.

USN Sees Deposits Topping $ One Billion in 1974

The resources of the United States National Bank of San Diego has passed the billion-dollar mark. C. Arnholt Smith, chairman of the board said year-end figures showed a 42% increase in resources to $1,046,995,000.

The bank was originally chartered in 1913. Smith assumed control in 1933 when resources were listed at $1,800,000. In the dregs of the 1933 depression days banks were required to double their capital, which required a considerable effort to raise another $100,000.

U. S. Natioal Bank now has 65 branches, all are in the five S. Cal. counties except one. Last year U. S. National acquired Fidelity Bank adding three branches, $81 million in deposits and $43 million in loans. Its opened its first international branch in Nassau, the Bahamas.

Smith sees USN's deposits surpassing the billion-dollar mark by mid-1974. This figure appears within grasp as deposits topped $900,000,000 the first week of the new year.

Another possibility is that of becoming state-wide as opportunities unfold for merger or acquisition. USN has tried to acquire several banks in the northern California area without success. These include the Hibernia Bank in San Francisco and First Western Bank's 33 northern offices.

The program will be repeated at 8 p.m., in the Fine Arts Recital Hall, Grossmont College. In his presentation, Dr. Bellman will provide new insights to sex in our computerized sex-conscious society.

Dr. Bellman has taught at Princeton, Stanford and the University of California under an unusual triple appointment as professor of mathematics, electrical engineering and medicine. He has been associated with the University of Southern California since 1965.

Dr. Bellman is best-known for his work in Adaptative and Modern Control Theory, Dynamic Programming and Matrix Theory and has recently been engaged in the field of Biomathematics. Several New Courses Planned For Spring

Several brand new courses have been scheduled for the Spring Semester at Grossmont College.

Included in the new semester will be a beginning guitar class for blind or physically limited students, a dental radiology course, and several "mini-courses" offered by the department of home economics.

Deadline for application to the college for the new semester is 8 p.m. Tuesday evening.

According to Marty Stuart, instructor of the guitar class, the only prerequisite for the course is that the student be able to manipulate the strings on his instrument. The class will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. each Tuesday, beginning February 6.

On Monday and Wednesday evenings, from 6 to 9 p.m., a 4-unit course in dental radiology will be offered by instructor Mary Ann Pacheco, beginning February 5.

The class will prepare students to pass the radiology safety examination given by the Board of Dental Examiners. The course is recommended for in-service review for those employed in the field as well as for those who have had no formal training.

Mini courses offered by the home economics departments will range in length from 7 to 9 weeks and will be offered during the day and in the evening.

Included among the courses will be instruction in macrame, stitchery techniques, non-loom weaving, gourmet foods, and consumer information.

The courses are aimed at persons in the community who are not presently attending college.

Special Class Begins Tonight At Grossmont

Grossmont College's Office of Community Services will present a special course featuring a "non-occult approach to parapsychology" commencing tonight at 7:30 p.m., in the Student Center. Additional sessions will be held each Thursday through March 1.

The course will present an overview of the field of parapsychology and the relationships between the conscious and subconscious. The controversial subject was recently recognized as a science by the acceptance of the Parapsychological Association for membership in the American Society for the Advancement of Science.

The course will be conducted by retired electronics engineer Chester I. Soucey who has devoted himself to the study of parapsychology since his retirement in 1969. He is presently engaged in writing a book titled "Parapsychology for Skeptics."

Soucey is a senior life member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, a member of the Southern California Society for Physical Research, the American Society for Psychical Research and the Academy of Parapsychology and Medicine.

There is no charge for registration or enrollment in the special course, and registration may be completed during the first class session.

DU Party Nets Record

An all-time local fund-raising record for waterfowl has been set by the San Diego Ducks Unlimited chapter, which is sending a check for $38,300 to DU headquarters in Chicago.

The money was raised during the annual San Diego DU Party, held last October at the Town & Country Convention Center, and attended by nearly 1,200 sportsmen and their wives and families.

Funds will be forwarded to the Canadian DU organization and will go toward completing the James S. Copley Memorial "duck factory" located in Alberta.

Retiring DU Chairman Norman Roberts expressed his appreciation for the "fine cooperation" he had received from hard-working committeemen as well as prize donors.

"On behalf of all North American waterfowl," he said, "I want to thank the city and county newspapers, radio and television stations, which helped to make our latest fund-raising party an outstanding success."

Meeting Site Switched

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District board of trustees will not meet in the board room for a regularly scheduled meeting February 20.

The meeting has not been cancelled, but the board has decided to meet instead at Rancho School as the first part of an experimental plan to rotate board meetings.

Under the plan, the second board meeting of each month would be held at a school rather than in the board room, thus affording trustees an opportunity to meet with principals, teachers, and parents.

The goldfish is a carp.

Wilderness Label Sought By Cranston

Proposals for designating six new California wildernesses introduced by Senator Alan Cranston last week would add more than one million acres to the 1.7 million in California already included in the National Wilderness Preservation System.

The new areas proposed by Cranston include the Agua Tibia Wilderness, 16,410 acres in the Cleveland National Forest in Riverside and San Diego counties.

The Senator said he believes the proposals "have a good chance of passing Congress."

The wilderness designation on federal lands, Cranston explained, prohibits logging, road building, commercial development and any other activity that would alter the primitive character of the area.

Adult School Class Graduation On Tap

A January 25 graduation is planned by Grossmont Adult School Health Occupations Department for 21 students who have completed a course in Medical Office Management.

"The employment probabilitees for those who have completed the semester course are very high," states Mrs. Marcia Diehl, instructor.

A new class which meets three mornings per week from 9-12 will begin January 30 and is open for enrollment. For information call the Health Occupations office 469-5784.

Nate Colbert Signs Padre 1973 Contract

Nate Colbert, Padres' slugging first baseman, is not only a big-league star, he's being paid like one.

That became the general concensus when he and Peter Bavasi, vice president and general manager jointly announced Tuesday that Colbert became the first Padre to sign for this season.

It also became the first major league contract negotiated by Pete, the son of the Padres' president — Buzzie Bavasi.

It should be recorded that Pete conducted the press conference with self-confidence and ability — and so did Nate. What ever happened to Buzzie?

"I set several goals for myself," Nate said. "I plan to play in every game; drive in more than 100 runs, and hit 35 or more homers."

Colbert led his team in runs (87), hits (141), doubles (27), homers (38) and runs-batted-in (111).

He was second in the majors in homers (Bench, 40) and his four-year major league homer total of 127 ranks third among all active major league players with their four-year major league totals.

One of the fastest "big men" in baseball, Colbert stole 15 bases and ranked third among first basemen behind Wes Parker and Lee May.

His record-breaking night was Aug. 1 in Atlanta when he hit five homers and drove in 13 runs to top the previous record of 11 set by Earl Averill in 1930; Jim Tabor in 1939 and Boog Powell in 1966. Nate's 22 total bases broke the double-header record of 21 set by Stan Musial; in 1947.

The length of the contract and the amount of money involved were not revealed.

Saturday is Balloon-time For Gulls at College Grove

Shades of an early Christmas!

But it won't be Santa coming down the chimney. It'll be San Diego Gulls left-winger, Bruce Cowick descending in a huge hot-air balloon.

He will be greeted by Miss Lemon Grove — Barbara Kotnik — who will perform the necessary homecoming functions as he arrives at the College Grove Shopping Center parking lot — if he's lucky! That ceremony will take place Saturday about 10 a.m.

Cowick will be joined by teammates George Swarbrick, Gerry Goyer and Ken Broderick in meeting all of the children and adults.

For the kids, many exciting events are planned. For starters, 30 lucky youngsters will be eligible for a ride in the balloon with Cowick. They will all receive autographed pictures of Bruce upon completion of the ride.

The children that will be available for the balloon ride will be chosen by a drawing soon after the 10:00 a.m. landing. There will also be drawings for hockey sticks, pucks, and a grand prize drawing for two season tickets for the 1973-74 season.

Two for one coupons will be handed out for the January 25 game against the Denver Spurs and a ticket booth will be set up in the parking lot so fans can purchase the discount tickets immediately.

Goyer, Swarbrick, Broderick and Cowick will be available for signing pictures. Wild Bunch posters will be given out to all kids in attendance.

And there is more. Thousands of copies of the Guide to the World's Fastest Sport will be given to all kids in the College Grove parking lot.

The excitement which begins at 10 a.m. will continue until 1 p.m.

Rain Tops 3/4 Inch

The Tuesday night, Wednesday morning storm accounted for .77 of an inch of rain, bringing the season's total to 8.34.

Last year at the same period the total was 4.31. There was no report of rain damage locally.

Rain season starts July 1.

CPO Allots $5.5 Million For San Diego Transit

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — This city, with some help from its friends, pushed through a $5.5 million request for S.B.325 funds at Monday's meeting of the Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO).

The money is thinly disguised as being 75 percent for capital improvements of the San Diego Transit System with 25 percent for operational costs.

Councilman Kenneth M. Roberts of Escondido was moved to remark, "If San Diego can dominate the vote this way, we might as well turn the CPO over to them and quit wasting our time."

San Diego has 40 votes out of 70 under the weighted voting formula and in two cases used this voting formula to prevail.

It's anyone's guess how much money of the $6.8 million available this fiscal year will be approved for the transit system by the state department of business and transportation.

Helix Water District Notes Improvements

Careful operation of Grossmont Reservoir, constant monitoring of water quality and increased security measures were cited by Helix Water District in response to an inquiry from Dr. J. B. Askew, San Diego County Director of Public Health about protection of the water storage facility.

Askew, in a letter dated last December 26, had inquired about water quality safeguards at the reservoir because of its proximity to residential areas and a school. The answering letter was approved by the Helix Board at its meeting January 10.

Harry Griffen, Helix Board Chairman, signed the letter, which stated: "We are continuing the upgrading of the distribution system, replacing inadequate and deteriorating pipelines and constructing new pumping stations and storage tanks to provide high quality service to the consumer. Over $2 million has been expended on such improvements in the last three years."

Also mentioned was the employment of consulting engineers to design sedimentation basins at the R. M. Levy Filtration Plant to improve water quality and to prepare for delivery of Feather River water.

Junior Job Bank 'Looks Promising'

The Lemon Grove Youth Bank will carry on.

While it wasn't the "altogether success" that the kids had hoped for, there was enough activity to indicate a Job Bank need exists.

The Bank is made up of youngsters attending Lemon Grove Junior High school who offer their work talents for $1 an hour.

During the holidays, headquarters for the project was at the Dutch Cleaners, on Broadway, in Lemon Grove.

Now it has been moved to the school where young, energetic workers may be acquired by calling 469-4183.

Glady's Kiger, who handled the calls at Dutch Cleaners while the schools were closed for the holidays, said those who hired youngsters said they were satisfied with their "employees". A couple of prospective employers were screened out. One was for a door-to-door salesperson.

Berry Bernasconi, a State college sociology student, who helped put the program together, said the Bank produced more activity than he anticipated.

Five students, he said, divided $40 for a Saturday car wash at Wink's Gulf station.

Three youngsters sanded and painted a fence at a house on Mt. Vernon st.

They did a good job — so good, in fact, that the owner hired one of the students as a permanent, part-time yard worker.

Another is working every week-end washing windows and yard cleaning at a house on Golf dr.

Five students were hired to clean the County office in the Youth Center. William Fletcher reported that they did a splendid job.

Bernasconi said that all of the students who apply for jobs have the written permission of their parents. Four of the youngsters who have volunteered to work on the Job Bank Committee to associate worker with job are: Cliff Halverson, Mitch Morgan, Jim Lenox and Jim Ek.

The number to call for Job Bank employees is 469-4183. This clipping should be glued onto the family phone book.

Van Racks Up 'Perfect Score'

WASHINGTON — Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D.-San Diego, is one of 51 House members given a perfect "political accountability rating" by the non-partisan League of Women Voters.

The ratings are based on votes cast in the 1972 session of Congress. The 51 honored represent about 12 percent of the total House membership of 435.

In compiling its ratings, the League surveyed positions taken on such issues as equal opportunity, anti-poverty programs, mass transit, welfare reform, busing, foreign aid, United Nations financing and water quality.

Van Deerlin achieved his perfect 100 on the basis of 10 roll call votes. He missed two other votes included in the League's compilation. League President Lucy Wilson Benson said all 12 votes involved issues that are central to the organization's national program.

Record Rise Seen For San Diego Economy in '73

Any way you look at it, San Diego is in for a banner year — from an economics point of view.

Dr. Raymond Jallow, chief economist for United California Bank, predicted that a healthy increase could be expected in 1973 in San Diego's family income, personal income, employment and bank balances.

Dr. Jallow, called by BUSINESS WEEK magazine, the most accurate business forecaster in 1972, saw San Diego first in growth in the state in family income; second in personal income, and third in growth in both employment and bank deposits.

San Diego's economy this year will parallel the State's and the State, for the first time in several years, will lead the nation.

The nation, Jallow said, will enjoy a "special year". It will be the best in 20 years. Income will increase by at least 10%. Jallow made his prognostications on the day President Nixon cancelled controls. "This is considered in the forecast," Jallow said.

In spite of the aerospace cutbacks 23,000 more San Diegans will be employed this year than last with the unemployment rate dropping below 5.5.

There will be 7,400 less rousing starts due to tightening of federal programs and widening of ecological uncertainty.

Tne upswinging financial pressure will come from tax refunds from state and federal governments; increase in social security payments ($7.4 billion in 1973) a 10.4% increase in retail sales ($3.4 billion in 1973); increase in income due to lifting of wage controls, and a general optimism that will encourage most San Diegans to spend all of their "new found money."

Jallow said the inflationary spiral would be about 3½% in 1973 in spite of restrictions on wage negotions being lifted.

The meeting, and a reception following, was attended by nearly 1,000 persons. It was held at Town and Country Convention Center. Norman Barker, UCB president, was host.

Library Offers Free Series

A series of free programs that will probe the little-known subjects of astral travel, ESP, reincarnation, witchcraft, astrology and self-hypnosis, began Wednesday at the Lemon Grove Library, 7735 Pacific ave., Lemon Grove.

The series, appropriately titled "Probing the Probable," is sponsored by the Lemon Grove Library and Grossmont College's Office of Community Services. In opening the four-part series, Dr. Douglas Gregg presented a framework for discussing psi phenomena.

The public is invited to join the sessions and there is no charge for admission.

Due to limited seating, registration is required. Registration may be completed at the library prior to any session in the series. All seats are on a first-come, first-served basis.

Other topics scheduled during the series are "Witchcraft Through the Ages," January 24; "Understanding Astrology," January 31 and "Self-Hypnosis," on February 7.

Pisa Cracking Up

New cracks have developed in the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

Students Win Seat on High School Board

Future meetings of the Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees will have a new addition at the board table.

Included among trustees and administration representation will be a student — a non-voting member of the board.

The decision to allow a seat for a student representative was reached by trustees last week when they approved in principle a resolution presented by the Associated Student Body Executive Council.

Before a representative will be selected to serve on the board, trustees will review the resolution and edit it before adopting it.

Student representation at board meetings is a familiar scene to the district, but previously, students sat at a separate table from trustees and were given time on the agenda to address the board on student affairs.

The new decision will afford a representative to sit at the board table and to offer opinions on behalf of the district's students on all items of interest to students.

Harden Gets Promotion

Management trainee Patrick Harden has completed his on-the-job training program with Builders Emporium, and has been promoted to the position of Assistant Manager of the Spring Valley store, located at 543 Sweetwater rd.

Ted Scott, Vice President for Operations of the 38 store chain, announced the promotion stating, "We are certain that the challenge of Harden's duties will be met with the enthusiasm he has always displayed. We know, also, that his ability will continue to contribute to the successful operation of the store."

Harden and his wife Irene have a two year old daughter and reside in Lemon Grove. He enjoys hunting and fishing.

'To Love' January 24 At Grossmont

Scandinavian Cinema, presented by Grossmont College's Office of Community Services, will continue when "To Love" is screened at 8 p.m., January 24 in the Fine Arts Recital Hall.

In Jorn Donner's "To Love," love is a marvelous distraction, a symbol of freedom and witty alternative in a world of economic pressure. If there appears to be a touch of Ingmar Bergman in "To Love," it is more than coincidental. Director-writer Donner, a Finn who produces films in Sweden, has written a book on Bergman and in "To Love" he used the talents of Bergman's cameraman, Sven Nykvist and a Bergman composer, Bo Nilsson. Told with a satiric flavor, "To Love" revolves around the courtship of a merry widow by a lecherous travel agent.

At the conclusion of the film, speech instructor Jay Richen will moderate a panel who will discuss "To Love" as well as film morals and censorship values. Scandinavian Cinema is an adult education program with admission restricted to those over 18.

The price of admission of 75 cents with tickets available at the door.
